

Regulation of

Florida A&M University

4.002 College and School Governance.

Each college, school and/or academic unit within the University is permitted to establish its own procedures of internal governance. These procedures should be developed by the faculty, staff and appropriate administrators. Such procedures should not conflict with Board of Governors' regulations, other University regulations, policies and procedures and must be approved by the Vice President for Academic Affairs. All administrators, faculty and staff members are expected to adhere to the established internal procedures of governance. The procedures are available in the Office of the Dean of the respective college, school and/or academic unit.
